Nicholas Salsgiver, Accomplished Banker, Joins Heritage Bank Leading Regional Community Bank Recruits Vice President to Lead Treasury Management Expansion

(Burlington, Kentucky, May 7, 2020) – Nick Salsgiver has joined Heritage Bank as Vice President, Director of Treasury Management. Salsgiver will oversee an expanding portfolio of treasury management and digital products for the bank while driving growth among regional and national customers.

Salsgiver, a 14-year veteran of the banking industry, has experience as an Assistant Vice President, Treasury Management Sales Officer, at Peoples Bank and as a Senior Operations Specialist in Huntington Bank’s Treasury Management Department.

“Nick brings a unique combination of treasury management expertise in operations and business development,” said Kevin Mooney, Heritage Bank Chief Operations Officer. “His skillset is exactly what Heritage Bank needs at this juncture.”

Salsgiver earned a bachelor’s degree at Ashland University where his studies focused on Business Administration. He started his banking career at Key Bank as a relationship officer and relationship manager.

“We look forward to the change and growth Nick is poised to lead at Heritage Bank,” said Lee Scheben, president.

About Heritage Bank

In September 1990, Heritage Bank was chartered by a group of local businesspeople alarmed about the shrinking access to community banks able and eager to respond to regional consumer and business banking needs. Now serving Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky through 19 branches, the bank remains a family-owned institution, already grooming the third generation of leadership. In an age of ongoing consolidation, Heritage Bank is resolute about remaining an independent bank, rooted in the communities where we operate. Heritage Bank, Member FDIC.
