Angela Crawford Promoted to Chief Compliance Officer Leading Regional Community Bank Promotes BSA Officer to Head of Compliance

(Burlington, Kentucky, August 12, 2020) – Angela Crawford has been promoted to Chief Compliance Officer. She has been the Heritage Bank Secrecy Act Officer since 2018.

“As the bank continues to grow throughout Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky, it is critical to have strong, experienced leadership in compliance,” said, H. David Wallace, chief executive officer and chairman of the board. “Angela has proven herself to be a capable, committed professional ready to assume her new responsibilities.”

Crawford brings 14 years of banking experience to her new role. Her past experiences include loan operations manager for Columbia Savings Bank and assistant vice president of compliance for Guardians Savings Bank.

Crawford earned a bachelor’s degree in Accounting and Finance from Upper Iowa University and is a Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager.

About Heritage Bank

Heritage Bank was founded in 1990 by a group of local businesspeople alarmed about the shrinking access to community banks and eager to respond to regional consumer and business banking needs. Now serving Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky through 19 branches, the bank remains a family-owned institution, already grooming the third generation of leadership. In an age of ongoing consolidation, Heritage Bank is resolute about remaining an independent bank, rooted in the communities where we operate. Heritage Bank, Member FDIC.
