Steven Caddell Promoted to Commercial Lender

Leading Regional Community Bank Promotes Credit Analyst to Commercial Lender

(Burlington, Kentucky, February 17, 2021) – Steven Caddell has started a new role as commercial lender at the bank his grandfather founded 30 years ago. From 2018 to 2020, he was a credit analyst.

“Steven represents the third generation of Caddells to take on officer-level roles at Heritage Bank,” said Peter Weickgenannt, Heritage Bank Senior Lender, Commercial Banking. “He grew up watching his grandfather and father lead the bank. He’s a life-long resident of Northern Kentucky and is passionate about helping small businesses thrive.”

Caddell joined Heritage Bank 10 years ago as a teller, progressing to a mortgage loan processor and consumer underwriter before joining the credit department. Recently, Steven joined the board of directors.

Caddell earned a bachelor’s degree at Northern Kentucky University where he studied business. He is also a graduate of the Kentucky Bankers Association Emerging Leaders Class of 2015.

About Heritage Bank

Heritage Bank was founded in 1990 by a group of local businesspeople alarmed about the shrinking access to community banks able and eager to respond to regional consumer and business banking needs. Now serving Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky through 19 branches, the bank remains a family-owned institution, already grooming the third generation of leadership. In an age of ongoing consolidation, Heritage Bank is resolute about remaining an independent bank, rooted in the communities where we operate. Heritage Bank, Member FDIC.
