Kelley Hungler Promoted to BSA Officer Leading Regional Community Bank Promotes Long-Time Compliance Team Member To Management Role

(Burlington, Kentucky, May 4, 2021) – Kelley Hungler has been promoted to Bank Secrecy Act Officer. She has been Heritage Bank’s Assistant BSA Officer since 2014.

“Kelley is diligent, collected and thorough,” said Angela Crawford, Heritage Bank Chief Compliance Officer. “Her compliance knowledge and growing leadership capabilities has prepared her for expanded opportunities. She’s a great example of how Heritage Bank prepares people to advance in their careers.”

Hungler brings 15 years of compliance experience to her new position including past roles as information technology officer and identity theft officer. She’s conducted audits of the branches, assisted the bank through various exams and overseen vendor management procedures during her time with Heritage Bank.

Hungler earned a bachelor’s degree at Thomas More University where her studies focused on Business Administration.
