Eric Ludlow Joins Heritage Bank as Controller

(Burlington, Kentucky, April 19, 2022) – Heritage Bank has recruited Eric Ludlow, CPA, to serve as its new controller.

“Eric brings strong and diverse accounting and finance experience to the role,” said Craig Liechty, Heritage Bank’s Chief Financial Officer. “His ongoing desire to learn and grow will fit well with Heritage Bank’s culture and ambitions.”

Ludlow’s past roles include assistant controller for River Metals Recycling and lead cash flow analyst for GE Aviation. He started his career at Deloitte Touche, LLP. He holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Ohio University where he focused on accounting and finance.

About Heritage Bank

Heritage Bank was founded in 1990 by a group of local businesspeople alarmed about the shrinking access to community banks able and eager to respond to regional consumer and business banking needs. Today, Heritage Bank is one of the 10 largest banks in greater Cincinnati and recently announcing expansion of commercial operations to Miami Valley. In an age of ongoing consolidation, Heritage Bank is resolute about remaining an independent bank, rooted in the communities where we operate. Heritage Bank, Member FDIC.
