Heritage Bank Welcomes Tyler Tepe to Commercial Banking Team

(Burlington, KY, September 15) - Heritage Bank is pleased to announce the addition of Tyler Tepe to the bank's commercial banking team on August 28. He is based in the Mason, Ohio Office.

Tepe brings nearly 20 years of banking experience and a strong record of helping businesses achieve their growth goals through strategic financing and relationship-focused banking. Prior to joining Heritage Bank, he served as Commercial Sales Manager at LCNB. Tepe holds an MBA from Xavier University and a bachelor's degree in Finance and Management Information Systems from Butler University.

"Tyler has built a strong reputation for advising small and mid-sized businesses in our area on financing and other strategies for growing and adapting to changing market conditions," said Barry Lampley, Ohio Market President. "We're proud to welcome him to Heritage Bank, a place on a fast-growing trajectory that matches Tyler's career arc. Heritage Bank is committed to building up the communities we call home by forging long-term relationships with local business and civic leaders, and we see those same values in Tyler."

About Heritage Bank

Heritage Bank has been serving small and mid-sized businesses as well as local residents in greater Cincinnati since 1990. In an age of ongoing consolidation and local banks going public, Heritage Bank remains resolute about remaining independent and promoting the prosperity of the communities we serve.

Heritage Bank is one of the region's seventh largest banks with commercial loan operations rooted in Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky, and extending through the Miami Valley and into Louisville, KY. The bank was named a 2026 Fast 55 finalist by the Cincinnati Business Courier and is Alloy's 2026 SBA Bank of the Year. Heritage Bank offers Cincinnati-area businesses access to seasoned local lenders just one call or text away from key decision makers, specialists in SBA 504 and 7a lending, and a robust portfolio of banking solutions created for small to mid-sized businesses. In addition, the bank is known for its exceptional customer service.
